

PEER AND SELF ASSESSMENT

Complete an assessment of your own and another groups Mock Interview, what did you think was good (plus) where do you think there is room for improvement (minus) and what did you find interesting. Remember to be constructive with your criticism and supportive towards your classmates.

Here are some features of a good interview...

- Interesting, open ended questions.
- Questions where well researched.
- Beginning: Clear introduction of person and what you are interviewing them about, makes a link to the ordinary life of the audience
- Middle : Sense of a two way conversation flowing. With the questions as a guide, but not the only thing the interviewer says.
- End: summarises or touches on the key thing/s that have come out of the interview, thanks interviewee and audience and outro with 'you've been listening to...'
